

Passionate Housewives Tea and Fellowship Brunch

Only $15.00
per person!

Full Breakfast
Included!
Register Today!

Saturday, June 28, 2008

9:00 a.m.—12:30 p.m.

Fresh Vision for the Hopeful Homemaker!

Are you a passionate housewife who sometimes feels desperate? Do you ever wonder if homeschooling is really worth the effort? Join us for the first ever Passionate Housewives Tea and be reminded why you're doing what you're doing—and how important your work really is. Gain fresh vision for living out Christ in all the everydayness of being a homemaking homeschooling mother. We are thrilled to provide you with a refreshing morning of food, teaching, and fellowship. Be renewed and encouraged by moms just like you, sharing and pointing you to the only lasting answer—

Jesus!

For more information, contact Stacy McDonald at mcmom@familyreformation.org or call 309-389-3316. To register, send a check for $15 to Family Reformation, PO Box 19, Kingston Mines, IL 61539. The event will be held at: The Christian Center in Peoria 4100 N Brandywine Dr.

- What is a “quiet time” and does it have to look a certain way?
- Why am I doing this again?
- What about “Me-Time?”
- How to become a burned out mom in 5 easy steps.

Visit

Stacy McDonald's Blog:

www.yoursacredcalling.com